

Australian CountryStyle

PEOPLE • HOMES • GARDENS • FOOD • LIVING

MARCH 2006

A young family brings new life to a NSW farmhouse

Food for thought: ideas for your kitchen

What you can do about global warming

Visit Tamie and Malcolm Fraser's Mornington Peninsula garden

Timeless Charm
BEAUTIFUL HOMES TO INSPIRE

Cottage Industry

The present occupants of this home in Mittagong, NSW, follow a tradition of owners who have added, demolished and generally 'played around' with the 1860s original.

WORDS BY ALI GRIPPER. PHOTOGRAPHY BY ROB REICHENFELD. STYLING BY ANNA REICHENFELD.

The back courtyard of Nina and Trevor's Mittagong home. Facing page The imported stairway railing is an example of Nina's interest in French design.